

Prof. Dr. Edda Müller

edda.mueller@t-online.de

1. Academic background:

- Studied Modern History and Political Science at the University of Munich
- the Free University of Berlin
- at the Ecole Nationale d'Administration, Paris
- doctorate in Public Administration
- Honorary Professor of the German University of Administrative Sciences, Speyer
- Head of the department of climate policy of the Wuppertal Institute for Climate, Environment and Energy

2. Positions as a civil servant

- Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety
- Federal Environmental Agency
- Planning division of the Office of the Federal Chancellor
- Federal Ministry of the Interior
- Deputy Executive Director of the European Environment Agency, Copenhagen

3. Experience as a Politician

- Minister for Nature and Environment of the State of Schleswig-Holstein

4. NGO positions

- President of the German Consumers' Organisation
- Deputy chairperson of the German Council for Sustainable Development (2001-2007)
- 2010 until 2019 chairperson of Transparency International Germany
- Since 2015 for Transparency International Germany member of the German EITI MSG

